At Polehampton Church of England Infant and Junior Schools, our vision is "Let your light shine" (Matthew 5:16). Jesus reminded us in Matthew's gospel that we are lights for the world. As we seek to follow him, we can share his light with others and change the world. Supported by our school values of gratitude, friendship, perseverance, forgiveness, honesty and compassion, we seek to help pupils make positive choices in all they do. We follow our Christian values to enable everyone in our school community to let their light shine.

At Polehampton Church of England Infant and Junior Schools, we want all our stakeholders and community links to know what is expected in terms of fair and transparent charging and remissions, so that we can work together to let our lights shine in all aspects of school life.

Notes from Polehampton CE Infant and Junior Schools:

- The term 'parents' refers to parents, carers or guardians.
- Any reference to Head/Head of School should be read as 'Head of School or Executive Headteacher'.

- Please note that there will be instances within this policy where 'CEO' refers correctly to the CEO. These instances are in places where 'CEO' is the only option listed.
- Any amendments to this model policy (other than formatting) have been added in blue text

1. Introduction and Aims

We are a family of distinctive schools at the heart of the diverse communities we serve. In line with our Christian ethos, we aspire to excellent learning and pastoral care for pupils and staff and are committed to being open and welcoming to all.

The Keys Academy Trust recognises the immense benefits that volunteers bring to the pupils in our schools and the bridges that they build between the school and the local community. In return, the school hopes to give its volunteers an opportunity to exercise their skills in a different environment and to undertake new experiences.

The school tries to offer a range of volunteering opportunities and, in accordance with its equal opportunities and diversity policies, to ensure that the opportunities to volunteer are widely available.

We are committed to using volunteers in a way that supports the wider development of pupils, their academic development and their spiritual, moral, social and cultural outcomes. They will also support the school's strategic aims and vision, as well as its school improvement plan.

The aim of The Keys Academy Trust's volunteer policy is to:

- Encourage the wider community to engage with their schools, thereby enhancing the curriculum, raising achievement and promoting community cohesion;
- Ensure that volunteers support the school's vision and values, and adhere to our policies;
- Ensure that, as with all other adults, volunteers are checked to ensure that they are appropriate to have contact with children and young people;
- Provide staff, volunteers and parents with clear expectations and guidelines;
- Set a clear, fair process for recruiting and managing volunteers.

This policy has been developed in line with the Department for Education's statutory safeguarding guidance, Keeping Children Safe in Education.

2. How we use volunteers

A volunteer is not an employee and will not have a contract of employment with the school. The school will agree a role with the volunteer and there will be an expectation that the volunteer will meet the role's requirements and that the school will for the time of the volunteer when in school. However, the volunteer is free to refuse to fulfil the role and the school is not bound to provide the agreed tasks. It is also expected that both the school and the volunteer will give as much notice as possible if unable to meet these expectations.

At Polehampton Infant & Junior Schools volunteers may:

- Hear children read
- Accompany school visits
- Work with individual children

- Work with small groups of children
- Support specific curriculum areas, such as ICT or art

(This isn't an exhaustive list.)

Volunteers may be:

- Members of the governing board
- Parents
- Former pupils
- Students on work experience
- Local residents
- Friends of the school/members of the PTA
- Local clergy or members of the congregation

(This is not an exhaustive list.)

Members of the local governing board working at the school in their capacity as governors (for instance, conducting school monitoring visits or attending meetings), are not covered by this policy. They are covered by our governor code of conduct.

3. How to apply to volunteer

Volunteers can apply in the following way:

- By emailing the school operations manager
- Approaching senior leaders, class teachers or heads of department
- Completing an application form (see appendix 1)

4. Appointment of volunteers

Volunteers are appointed by Head of School.

Volunteering is conditional upon the completion of an enhanced DBS check and other appropriate safeguarding and recruitment checks before the volunteer is allowed to start their role in school. They will also be offered any relevant training needed to satisfy the Trust's Safeguarding Policy and any specific tasks they are expected to undertake.

The Headteacher/Head of School reserves the right to terminate a placement at any time.

If there are a number of applicants requesting to volunteer, the school may prioritise volunteers based on their skillset, preferred year group in which to work or other factors. The school may also conduct short interviews to ensure a fair process.

5. Safeguarding

Safeguarding our pupils is of paramount importance, and our volunteers must share our commitment to child protection.

To ensure we're upholding our responsibility to keep our pupils safe, we will conduct enhanced DBS checks on volunteers who:

- Work one-to-one with pupils unsupervised
- Work with groups of pupils unsupervised
- Supervise or accompany groups of pupils on school trips and residentials

The school will;

- consider the results of any DBS checks that return with unspent and spent listed convictions, and assess these on a case-by-case basis, with regard given to the nature of the conviction and the nature of the work the volunteer will be involved in
- Provide safeguarding training to all volunteers prior to them beginning a role at the school, including ensuring that they have read and understood part 1 of Keeping Children Safe in Education
- Require volunteers to agree and adhere to our code of conduct and to read, and adhere to, the school's policies on:
 - Safeguarding (including Whistleblowing and KCSIE)
 - Use of mobile phones
 - ICT and internet acceptable use
 - Online safety
 - Behaviour
 - Marking and feedback
 - Handbook (not a policy but a key document to read)
- Ensure that volunteers without an enhanced DBS check are always supervised, and are never left alone with pupils
- Conduct a risk assessment to determine whether a volunteer who isn't working in regulated activity needs an enhanced DBS check. The risk assessment will consider:
 - The nature of the work they will be doing
 - What we know about them
 - References from employers or other voluntary roles
 - Whether the role is eligible for an enhanced DBS check

6. Induction and training

Volunteers must complete appropriate training prior to beginning work at the school.

Training requirements will be determined by the Headteacher/Head of School, or the appropriate member of staff.

All volunteers must have safeguarding training. Other training requirements will be based on the nature of the work the volunteer will be doing.

7. Confidentiality

Information about pupils, parents and staff is confidential. Volunteers should be informed of the type of information they will witness or come to know and an explanation of why they are not permitted to discuss issues related to pupils, parents or staff with those outside of the organisation.

If volunteers have concerns, they must be told that they should raise these with the appropriate member of staff. They should not discuss them with pupils or parents.

If concerns relate to safeguarding, volunteers must inform the DSL who will follow the guidance in our Safeguarding policy.

If concerns are related to whistle-blowing, volunteers must follow the guidance in our whistle-blowing policy.

8. Conduct of volunteers

Volunteers are expected to comply with all the school's policies and procedures while they are on its premises or undertaking any of their volunteering duties. Their induction will include an explanation of these policies and procedures.

9. Expenses

Volunteers are unpaid. However, the school may reimburse volunteers for travel and subsistence expenses. Any such reimbursement will be in accordance with the school's expenses policy and require receipts and evidence of mileage claimed

10. Insurance

The school's insurance policy covers volunteers in the event of an accident or emergency and when undertaking their role.

If a volunteer is working at the school through another organisation, we will also check that organisation's insurance arrangements.

11. Data protection and record keeping

Our privacy notice explains what information we collect about volunteers and why we collect it.

We will retain records relating to volunteers in line with our records retention schedule.

12. Monitoring and review

This policy has been approved by the board of trustees and will be reviewed regularly

They may not use their time as a volunteer to discuss their child’s education with school staff.
